The Business Way!

The business way to advertise is to take space by the year, take pains with your advertisements in making them attractive, and change them at least as often as once a month.

You may think there are seasons when you don't need to advertise.

We have never seen that time.

Use the dull seasons for looking over your stock and running off that which is becoming out of style or un-fashional, and giving bargains.

If you have space in the year, it costs you no more, and you can make it profitable by converting unusable goods into money, and re-investing the money in those things which are salable.

Buy of The Ledger Now!
Greeley (Colo.)—During the last campaign the Democrats of this city displayed a banner in their processions bearing this inscription:

VOTE FOR GROVER CLEVELAND
AND H. A. BUSHEL
FOR YOUR WHEAT.

A liberal reward will be paid for that banner at this office, and no questions asked.

GRESHAM will find out that personal grudge is a poor base for a National policy.

THE COUNTRY is watching now to see upon whom CLEVELAND will now try to shift the odium of the forthcoming Tariff bill.

THE UNITED STATES has the highest death rate from diphtheria, 480 in 10,000. Holland and Sweden come next with 440 each.

THE DISTRICT of Representative HARTER, the howling Ohio Free-trade, which last year gave him 2,000 plurality, gave McKinley 5,000 plurality this year. Representative HARTER should begin to look around for "something just as good."

THE MATRIMONIAL record has been beaten by a woman in Vanies. She has buried her sixth husband, and has just consigned herself by taking her seventh. A New York company is reported to have refused to insure his life.

THE CHIEF of the United States Senate stationary room holds his office under the title by which he was elected years ago: "Mender of quill pens," though there is but one Senator who uses a quill pen, and the Chief's duties are now quite unlike those which he first assumed.

THE COLLECTING of postage stamps has brought into existence a stamp repairer, who for a small fee, deaderonally repairs mutilated stamps. His specialty is restoring the margin which to envelope stamps that have been cut to shape and have thus lost much of their philatelic value.

The American Association of Growers Take some to Europe.

MEDFORD, Pa., Nov. 25.—The American Cranberry Growers' association has been successful in introducing American fruit in foreign markets. Large shipments of New Jersey berries have been sent from Philadelphia to Liverpool and London markets, and they have sold well at a good profit, notwithstanding the fact that the general market for cranberries is at a standstill. If no schedules are adopted it may take more time to reach a report, but if the contrary democrats on the committee send the thing through just as it has been scheduled for release, the market will have to come later, in the nature of amendments. These are some of the perplexities which confront the gentlemen of the ways and means majority at the present writing.

ACCIDENTAL DEATHS.

Caused by Carelessness.

The majority of people die sooner than they should. Evidence of this is growing daily. We are says: "Life is a consequence of death; it is due to unnatural conditions of living—neglect, abuse, want." Dr. Stephen Smith, on the same subject, "Man is born healthy and dies ill; this disease is unnatural, death, except from age, is unnatural, and both are preventable by human agency." This is almost invariably true. Carelessness, carelessness, carelessness. Careless over-exertion, intercessive use of tea, coffee, tobacco, alcoholic or other stimulants are generally the causes of this difficulty, and in addition to its pernicious results, in sudden death, on the average, it leads to death. By the newspapers it can be seen that many prominent and hundreds of persons in private life die from heart disease every day.

If you are any of the following symptoms: shortness of breath, palpitation, irregular pulse, fainting and smothering spells, pain in shoulder, side, or arm, swelling of feet, and sudden treatment seems to have no effect, then you, if you delay, the consequences may be serious.

For over 20 years Dr. Franklin Miles, the eminent specialist, has professed a special interest in diseases of the heart, and many of the leading discoveries in that direction are due to him. His New Heart Cure is absolute, the only reliable remedy for the cure of heart disease, as is proved by thousands of testimonials from grateful persons who have used it.

INCOME TAX.

President Cleveland Objects to Anything of the Kind.

Backed by Messrs. Wilton, Cochran and Stevens Against It.

And Will Fight in Congress Against Such a Bill to the Last—Congressman Amos Cummings, of New York, is Also a Vigorous Opponent of It.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The income tax advocates are against the administration. President Cleveland has made himself understood to the effect that he does not believe in it, but in a positive way, without reproaching any person particularly, and he is opposed to an income tax in any shape, form or manner at any time. For some months past he has been in opposition to the president's views on this question, and at last he has given the committee to understand his wishes. If the income tax is to be brought forth, the executive prefers that it be drafted as a revenue bill.

Three of the most prominent democats on the ways and means committee, namely, Chairman Wilson, Bourke Cockran and Stevens are in line with President Cleveland, and will fight against such a bill to the last.

Rep. Amos Cummings, who is a vigorous opponent of it.

Open threats against his life were made by the Negroes, who concealed themselves in ambush and waited for Wheatley to return to Opellika.

The Negroes were heavily armed and made bold threats of vengeance.

Wheatley had secreted near Wheatley's home all night.

Friday morning citizens of the neighborhood got wind of the affair and several gentlemen rode to Opellika and informed officers of the discovery. A posse, numbering some 200 men, with all the firearms available, and headed by Sheriff Gibson, hastened to the scene.

Upon arriving they found the Negroes concealed in different places, and before they realized the situation eleven of them were easily handled.

The Negroes were armed with several razors and two with revolvers concealed on their person. A stampede of the Negroes ensued and the remaining ones escaped for the time being.

Wheatley was escorted by the sheriff's posse. A Negro made an attempt to strike him after he was handcuffed.

Both whites and Negroes are thoroughly aroused, and it was reported Friday night that a battle had taken place and several persons have been wounded.

NEGRO UPRISING.

A Severe Situation Exists in Alabama.—An Uncensored Report That a Battle Has Taken Place and a Number Been Wounded.

OPELLINKA, Ala., Nov. 25.—A Negro uprising occurred in this county Thursday morning about 7 o'clock, twelve miles from this city. Eleven of the ringleaders were jailed and a large party of armed citizens is securing the neighborhood.

Thursday Mr. Jeff Wheatley, a wealthy citizen, residing twelve miles from Opellika, severely thrashed a Negro who had threatened to use foul language toward his wife. One hundred or more Negroes of the neighborhood rose in arms and swore vengeance on Wheatley.

Open threats against his life were made by the Negroes, who concealed themselves in ambush and waited for Wheatley to return to Opellika.

TIKE-UP BROKEN.

Getting Train Through, the Lehigh Valley Railroad.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—The tie-up on the Lehigh Valley railroad is unquestionably broken. Passenger service is practically free again. Although the road has been closed for nearly a month, the company has made considerable progress toward morning cars which have been stalled for five days. The blockade at Buffalo and Sayre has been ended, loaded trains passing through without interruption. At Jersey City other trains are ready to move, and the road engine arrives from up the line.

Coal traffic is seriously impeded but coal trains have begun to move out of the Wyoming valley regions. The strikers acknowledge that the company has been prompt in its action, and have placed their hope solely on the efficiency of the new men. The deputy sheriffs have been reduced in numbers at nearly all points, and the railroad officials claim, they have no more fear of the miners.

They claim the road will be completely manned and operated according to the old schedules in about three days.

JOHN C. ENO.

Granted Release on $5000 Bail Until the Grand Jury Meets.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—John C. Eno, charged with the embezzlement of funds of the Second National bank, of which he was president in 1884, bound to the United States grand jury Friday on $5000 bail, appeared when called upon. His bondsmen are John H. Blodgood, proprietor of the Fifth avenue hotel, and Albert H. Darling. At the examination before a committee of the grand jury, he was asked if he had any objection to the trial board. He replied that he preferred to go before the grand jury with the case, and requested that the bail be allowed to stand. The proposition was agreed to by Assistant District Attorney Mott. The grand jury will meet the second week in December.

Skates Broke.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 25.—Three boys, Garfield Michaels, aged 12 years, and Thomas Maschak and John Williams, both aged 10 years, broke through the ice of the Lehigh river at the dam and a millery dam, and were drowned. Another boy, Albert Carr, aged 12 years, was with them, but was rescued by a minor, who later secured the three bodies.

FIGHTING STANCES.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 25.—The Lehigh Valley Railroad Co. began paying off the strikers Friday, and by Saturday noon all the men out will be paid the money due them. The company hopes to terminate the strike Monday. If this is not done the strike will assume a more dangerous character.

LAID TO REST.

Greatest Concourse Ever Gathered at Viroqua,

To Witness the Funeral Obsequies of Ex-Secretary of Agriculture Rusk.

Many Eminent Mourners, Together With Crippled Soldiers and Hundreds of Others—The Funeral was in Accordance with Gen. Rusk's Wishes.

VIROQUA, Wis., Nov. 23.—A great gathering of people Friday bared their heads to a brisk cold wind that blew steadily from the west while the last earthly tribute was paid to Jeremiah M. Rusk, ex-governor, ex-congressman and late secretary of agriculture of President Harrison's cabinet. The ex-president, who was very fond of Gen. Rusk, journeyed all the way from Indianapolis, the little village in Northwestern Wisconsin, where he lives west of Milwaukee, and followed the remains to their last resting place, walking with the family as one of the chief mourners.

The obsequies were a fitting finale to the simple life of Wisconsin's great commoner, and most picturesque character the state has ever produced. The bitter cold weather did not prevent the people of the entire surrounding country from attending the funeral and many thousands of strangers were present, large delegations coming from the most distant parts of the north-west.

Three heavy special trains arrived during the day, the first arriving from La Crosse, the second from Madison, brought Geor. Peck, the judge of the supreme court and a large number of other prominent people from Madison, where Gen. Rusk spent seven years as governor and a great deal of time in other capacities before his death. The third and largest special train from Chicago and Milwaukee, bringing several hundred notable people, including Ex-President Harrison, Ex-Attorney General Miller, Capt. Meredith, ex-publisher of "The Public Ledger," and other secretaries of agriculture, Senator Philibert Sawyer and John C. Spooner, Ex-Gov. W. D. Hoard, Gen. Lucius Fairchild, Henry C. Payne and a large delegation of the Loyal Legion and Masonic fraternities. This special left Milwaukee at 7 o'clock in the morning, making a rapid and uneventful run to Viroqua.

The funeral arrangements were in accordance with the wishes of Gen. Rusk. A private and simple ceremony was held Thursday afternoon in the residence, a modest frame house a mile from the town. Rev. Geo. Nuzum, of the Methodist church, officiating, the widow, four children and a small number of sorrowing relatives and close friends gathered around the bier, which remains, resting in a handsome but plain cedar casket draped with an American flag and fairly buried under floral emblems, was conveyed to the little Methodist church in town, members of the Methodist fraternity in which Gen. Rusk stood very high, acting as escort of honor. At the church a delegation from Alexander Lowrie post, G. A. R., all associates of the dead soldier, stood guard while the remains were lying in state all night and all day. The little church holds only about 350 people, and a continuous stream passed by the bier from Thursday night until the last moment Friday. There were many affecting scenes as old veterans dimly seen, and in many instances weeping, got a faint yet touching look at the familiar face, and by expressing their sorrow.

The public services were of an extremely character and were conducted by Rev. Mr. Nazarian, the Methodist church, and S. D. Hartman, a warm personal friend of Gen. Rusk. Prof. Butler was for many years with the Wisconsin university and was previously a Congregational minister. He was eighty years old and probably made a feeling and painful address. He paid a salute to his lifelong friend. Shortly before his death Gen. Rusk asked his wife to send for Prof. Butler to help bury him. A choir rendered a number of favorite selections and there were many solo voices.

The religious services were followed by the reading of the beautiful burial service of the Masonic Blue Lodge by E. H. Benzenberg, commander of Wisconsin consistory. The masons all wore masonic aprons.

Immediately after the impressive services the funeral procession formed. It was headed by an escort of Knights Templars from the Robert McWayne chapter, the Masonic Lodge. These men were in livery palbearers. The active palbearers came next, then the funeral car with four black horses. Immediately following were carriages containing the family, the carriage occupied by ex-President Harrison and Col. J. C. Sawyer, Gen. Rusk's private secretary; then Gov. Peck and staff, the Masonic bodies, the military order of the Loyal Legion, the G. A. R., the Odd Fellows and the neighbors and visiting friends.

At the head of the Masonic service was ready by the office of La Belle Lodge No. 24, the home lodge of which the general was a member. Then a military salute was fired and the last scene in the eventful career of Gen. Rusk was at an end.

Burnt Plant Destroyed by Fire.

Zanesville, O., Nov. 25.—The T. B. Townsend Co.'s brick plant was totally destroyed by fire at 3 o'clock Friday morning. The loss will reach $50,000, with $21,000 insurance. The flames were of incendiary origin. The company will rebuild. A hundred men were made unemployed.

Train Wrecked at a Switch.

GRANGEVILLE, Mich., Nov. 22.—A passenger train on the Chicago and West Michigan road struck a mangled switch near Zeehan and was derailed. The passengers were piled up in heap. Many were injured, but none killed.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 6th, 1893.
The State Medical Society of Tennessee:
Gentlemen: I have had numerous rheumatic and gouty affection for a number of years, and have long been under treatment. As the most skillful physicians had failed in my case, I consulted Dr. Wm. W. Edwards, who has made a complete cure and I most heartily recommend him to all rheumatic and invalids. I will guarantee all his claims in regard to Antiphlogistic. Yours, respectfully,

GOOD ADVICE.

Every patriotic citizen should give his personal effort and influence to increase the circulation of his home paper which teaches the American policy of Protection. It is his duty to aid in this respect in every possible way. After the home paper is taken care of, why not subscribe for the AMERICAN ECONOMIST, published by the American Protective Tariff League? One of its correspondents says: "No true American can get along without it. I consider it the greatest and truest political teacher in the United States."

The obsequies were a fitting finale to the simple life of Wisconsin's great commoner, and most picturesque character the state has ever produced. The bitter cold weather did not prevent the people of the entire surrounding country from attending the funeral and many thousands of strangers were present, large delegations coming from the most distant parts of the north-west.
